

Commercial Litigation (Senior Associate or Special Counsel)

Kreisson is a Commercial, Engineering & Property Law Firm with a strong construction and major projects practice. Recognised in Asia Pacific Legal 500 as experts in our field, our leading construction and engineering law firm has an enviable client base ranging from large international construction companies to local builders and developers.

The Benefits:

- Competitive remuneration package, together with bonus and incentive schemes.
- Quality client base.
- Opportunity for professional growth within in a supportive culture.

The Ideal Candidate

- 10 years + PAE in commercial litigation.
- Arbitration experience and commercial acumen.
- Strong commercial contract drafting skills.
- Knowledge of Australian Standard construction contracts.
- Strong drafting skills of bespoke building and commercial agreements.
- Advanced technical expertise.
- Strong analytical and research skills.
- Commitment and dynamic approach to marketing and business development is essential.
- Ability to deliver a high quality of work under strict time frames.
- Front and back end construction experience is preferred.
- Background in building or engineering is highly regarded.

How to Apply

- Please submit your cover letter and CV to recruitment@kreisson.com.au addressing the selection criteria above.

All applicants will be treated with a high degree of confidentiality.

Only successful applicants will be contacted.