

Personal Property Security Act

The introduction of the Personal Property Securities Act 2009, together with the PPS Reform Act and Regulation has effectively changed the way goods are sold on credit and consignment across a wide range of corporate industries.

The single national online Personal Property Security Register has had a dramatic effect on the laws surrounding the security interests over assets and has had a significant effect on a wide range of services offered by businesses across different industries.

In order to guarantee that businesses who provide goods on credit have the appropriate terms of trade to deal with PPSA and perfect their interests, the experienced Kreisson team can help you in managing your terms and agreements to minimise the risks involved with losing those goods supplied on credit if the debtor enters into insolvency or bankruptcy.

Our dedicated team at Kreisson can assist you by providing expert advice in the area of PPSA and ensuring that our clients are well advised in understanding and responding practically and efficiently to the PPSA changes that may affect their business.

OUR KEY SERVICES

We provide premium legal services to you and your business and ensure that a commercially focused approach is used in order to resolve and advise on even the most complex of PPSA issues, such as:

- Personal Property Securities Act
